QUESTIONS FROM THE PUBLIC ON AGENDA ITEMS

45 None.

DECLARATIONS OF INTEREST

46. None

CIRCUS REQUEST

47. Councillors agreed to give permission to Circus Ginnett to use the Lower Rec for a time, as yet unspecified, in June 2017, subject to agreement with the Football Clubs. The charge is to be £100.00 per day.

SKATEBOARD REPORT

48. The Committee members of SN6 Wheeled Sports are to write to Highworth Town Council once they have decided on what basis they would like the specified Skateboarding site to be obtained from SBC. The Committee will either decide that the site should be under its responsibility or submit a request to HTC for the Town Council to have responsibility, once it has been constructed. When this issue has been decided, negotiations can begin with SBC for any alterations to the existing lease. The Committee is also to apply in writing to the Council for any funding it might seek from HTC.

CORRESPONDENCE

49. An Application for grant funding for a Member of Team GB, selected to compete in Estonia and Greece representing GB has been received. The cost is expected to be over £1200.00. The applicant is to be informed that Highworth Charities should be approached to request a grant. The application form is held in the Council Offices.

MEMBERS' BUSINESS
